I have extensive experience across a wide range of short-form and long-form projects, including feature-length productions. My work spans multiple genres such as factual, observational, natural history, historical and science documentaries, docudrama and dramatic reconstructions, reality programming, and fast-turnaround daily and weekly current affairs.

Over the course of my career, I've contributed to numerous award-winning films that have earned accolades including two Emmys, a Peabody Award, an AIB Award, a duPont-Columbia Silver Baton, multiple Royal Television Society Awards, and several ATOM Awards.

I've worked with leading broadcasters across Australia, the UK, the US, China, and Japan. These include SBS, ABC, Foxtel, Channels 7 and 10, BBC One, Two, Three and Four, Channel 4, Channel 5, ITV, Amazon, National Geographic, Discovery, PBS, History Channel, CCTV (China), and NHK (Japan).

I'm available to work onsite in offices or post-production houses, as well as remotely. I have a fully equipped home edit suite and work proficiently with Avid, Adobe Premiere Pro, and DaVinci Resolve.
